1           JUDGE HAYNES: Pursuant to the direction of the
2 Illinois Commerce Commission, I now call Docket
3 03-0662. This is the complaint of Jamie Catherine
4 Falconer versus Illinois Bell Telephone Company and 5 Global Teldata, Inc.

6           May I have the appearances for the record,
7 please. Your name and address.

8           MS. FALCONER: My name is Jamie Catherine
9 Falconer. I live at 444 West Fullerton, Unit 1203,
10 Chicago, Illinois 60614.

11          MR. HUTTENHOWER: James Huttenhower,
12 H-u-t-t-e-n-h-o-w-e-r, appearing on behalf of 13 Illinois Bell Telephone, 225 West Randolph Street,
14 Suite 25-D, Chicago, Illinois 60606.

15          JUDGE HAYNES: And on the telephone?

16          MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: My name is Mark Lieberman,
17 that's L-i-e-b-e-r-m-a-n. I'm here for Global 18 Teldata, and my address is 4646 North Ravenswood in 19 Chicago.

20          JUDGE HAYNES: Okay. This is, I believe, the 21 second time that we've -- this case has been up and 22 last time -- is it Global or GTI?

1           MR. MARK LIEBERMAN:  They're both the same
2   company, ma'am.

3           JUDGE HAYNES:  Okay.  Global did not appear,
4   and SBC and the Complainant discussed discovery and
5   how -- I can't remember the details; but I believe
6   that they agreed to exchange information informally
7   and no dates were set.

8                        Would either of you like to let me know
9   how that's going or --

10          MS. JAMIE FALCONER:  Well, he sent me a letter
11   with the information that he said he would; and then
12   I went through and looked at all the AT&T bills per 13   his request and it looks like AT&T billed us after
14   January.  And then before that, on certain months,
15   SBC Ameritech billed us for the AT&T long distance
16   calls and certain months they didn't.

17                       Like, it's weird.  Like, January through 18   March there's zero.  Then March through April there's 19   a bill.  And then April through May it's zero.  And 20   it goes on like that, back and forth; but it
21   totals -- the total is $62.22.

22          MR. HUTTENHOWER:  So you're talking for 2002

1       and --

2               MS. JAMIE FALCONER:   Hm-hmm.

3               MR. HUTTENHOWER:   -- that AT&T billed you

4       directly starting in 2003?

5               MS. ELIZABETH KRAFCKY:   Well, actually --

6               MS. JAMIE FALCONER:   It started, actually, I

7       believe, in October.

8               MR. HUTTENHOWER:   All right.

9               MS. JAMIE FALCONER:   I mean, I think the first

10      bill was in January but that it covered October

11      through January.

12              JUDGE HAYNES:   Okay.   And have -- are there

13      still outstanding requests or have you gotten all the

14      information you're seeking from each other or --

15      Mr. Huttenhower?

16              MS. JAMIE FALCONER:   The only -- oh, I'm sorry.

17              JUDGE HAYNES:   No.   Go ahead.

18              MS. JAMIE FALCONER:   The only question was that

19      in his letter he said that if he got more information

20      regard- -- he would send copies about the company

21      wholesale group, what records they had.

22              JUDGE HAYNES:   Okay.

1 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: And I just wondered
2 whether or not you've gotten anything from them.

3 MR. HUTTENHOWER: I didn't get anything that
4 made sense. I mean, you know -- like, it's some 5 computer printout that made no sense to me and would
6 probably make, equally, no sense to you.

7 JUDGE HAYNES: Okay.

8 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Did you want to see what
9 he sent me?

10 JUDGE HAYNES: No. That's okay.

11 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Okay.

12 JUDGE HAYNES: When we have the actual trial --

13 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Okay.

14 JUDGE HAYNES: -- you can show me anything you
15 want to.

16 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Okay. I just have one
17 question. Is this okay to ask now?

18 JUDGE HAYNES: Okay.

19 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Because the thing is that 20 AT&T has sent me -- I know that you said that in your
21 letter with the Credit Bureau that you didn't know
22 whether or not the collection agency had made a

1     report but that within 30 to 120 days that would be
2     removed.

3                     But, I mean, I've already started
4     getting letters that credit cards are saying, you
5     know, I have this problem with my credit history and 6     not to use my credit card anymore because of it.

7                     And so -- I mean, I did call because it
8     says in the letter that you called to request a copy
9     of the credit report, and I haven't gotten it yet.
10    And, I mean, I don't know because it happens to be an 11    AT&T calling card, whether or not it's because of the 12    $62.22 or if it's because of this case.

13                    All of my other bills, I don't have any 14    problems with. So I am concerned about it, and I
15    just --

16                    MR. HUTTENHOWER: I don't know -- I mean, I
17    think -- based on my understanding of, you know, how 18    stuff gets off of credit histories -- that it may be 19    too soon for it to have gone everywhere it needs to 20    go. I mean, that they -- you know, I think I said in 21    the letter it could take some period of time.

22                    MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Oh, you did.

1           MR. HUTTENHOWER: To the fact that this is
2   AT&T -- some part of AT&T writing to you makes me
3   less certain that I know, necessarily, why it's
4   happening as opposed to saying, you know, Joe's
5   Collection Agency or something like that.

6                   Whether -- you know, I don't know; and
7   so it may have nothing to do with any of the charges
8   on -- that we billed on behalf of AT&T on your bill,
9   or it may have something to do with that. I just 10   don't know.

11                   Did they give any indication -- like, if
12   they were writing an -- you know, because of the $62
13   worth of charges, they might mention that as opposed
14   to something else.

15           MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Well, they mentioned that 16   they have -- was based in whole on part of the 17   information they obtained from a consumer reporting
18   agency listed below, Transunion LLC Consumer
19   Relations.

20                   And so -- I mean, it says in the letter
21   that if they have cancelled your card because of 22   some -- of a report, then what they do is they will

1     give you a free copy of the report.

2                     So I called -- I mean, I just received
3     the letter, and I called on January 7th and I haven't
4     gotten it yet. I mean, I guess it hasn't been enough
5     time for them to send it to me.

6                     But, like, one of the things I want to 7     make sure that we're doing is fixing that.

8                     JUDGE HAYNES: Maybe the details of this -- I
9     don't know what he said he would do -- you could work
10    out after this because I don't know that -- at this 11    point, I can't do anything because I don't know who 12    has done what here.

13                    MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Hm-hmm.

14                    JUDGE HAYNES: So perhaps you two would like to 15    talk about that after we go off the record here.

16                    MR. HUTTENHOWER: Okay.

17                    JUDGE HAYNES: Mr. Lieberman?

18                    MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Yes, ma'am.

19                    JUDGE HAYNES: The complaint is against SBC and 20    GTI?

21                    MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Yes, ma'am.

22                    JUDGE HAYNES: So I assume that the parties

1     here will be -- I guess, I don't know. But the
2     Complainant will want information from your company
3     and perhaps SBC would as well.

4                     Do you have -- do you know if you will
5     be conducting discovery?

6             MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Well, let me say a couple
7     things.

8                     As you pointed out, I am not an 9     attorney; but MS. JAMIE FALCONER, who has been our
10    customer for some time -- and I thought her problem
11    was with my billing her for local service as well as 12    SBC. That is apparently not the case. Her problem
13    has nothing to do with local service. It has to do
14    with long distance service; is that true?

15            JUDGE HAYNES: I don't -- go ahead and answer.

16            MS. JAMIE FALCONER: I mean, the problem is 17    that I was being double-billed for phone service --
18    local service.

19            MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Okay.

20            MS. JAMIE FALCONER: And then at the first 21    meeting, Ameritech's attorney pointed out that on the 22    bills for SBC, that they were charging me for long

1 distance. And I said, Well, I was also paying for
2 some long-distance bills and he asked for me to look
3 back and see, you know, what period was AT&T billing
4 it and what did that coincide with AT&T billing me
5 myself.

6 So that's what I was responding to.

7 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: All right. Let me add two 8 things, your Honor. And if this is inappropriate, of 9 course, I'm sure you'll stop me.

10 This is an informal sort of hearing;
11 right? I mean, I understand it's on the record --

12 JUDGE HAYNES: By "informal," what do you mean?
13 Because there is an informal complaint process prior 14 to this, and this would be the -- when this goes to 15 trial -- this is a status hearing --

16 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: That's fine.

17 JUDGE HAYNES: -- on the record, and this will 18 be the formal fact-finding --

19 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Oh, all right. We're
20 together. Well, let me add two things,
21 and then I'm sure you'll help guide me.

22 The first thing is that we -- after I

1     got the information here I dug into the record, and I
2     have a change order number and a date from Ameritech
3     showing the date -- the date and the order number
4     that MS. JAMIE FALCONER became our customer for local 5     service only. And we know, because we've talked to 6     the Ameritech business office, that there were some
7     problems on the Ameritech -- and handling that order.
8     In other words, we were told the order was handled;
9     but it was not handled.

10                     And so I think I can understand why she
11     got billed twice. And I'll be happy to volunteer
12     that information because in that way, Ameritech can 13     follow it up on their end if they wish.

14                     The other thing -- and this is why I'm 15     not sure if I'm in order or not, and I'm sure I'll be 16     stopped if I'm not -- because Miss Falconer has been 17     our customer at this point for so long, and I'd be 18     perfectly happy if she would consider this an 19     adequate way to settle the complaint.

20                     If she would like us to pay the $62
21     that's in question, and that will handle her credit
22     problem, I would be happy do that.

1 JUDGE HAYNES: There's more issues that has to
2 do with than just the long-distance service and --

3 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Yes, ma'am.

4 JUDGE HAYNES: -- even if MS. JAMIE FALCONER
5 would be happy to get rid of -- as a respondent, it
6 doesn't mean that SBC would let you off the hook.

7 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: That's exactly right,
8 ma'am; and I think I feel the same way about that. I
9 want MS. JAMIE FALCONER to be happy.

10 SBC and I are perfectly capable of 11 working through whatever might be going on here.

12 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: I guess -- I mean, I need
13 to clarify something because like --

14 JUDGE HAYNES: Okay.

15 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: -- the total bill is more
16 like $900 or $1,000 that's due to Ameritech because 17 for a very long time, both companies billed me.

18 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Oh, all right.

19 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: And what happened at the 20 last meeting was SBC and Ameritech was trying to come
21 up with reasons how this could happen; and he just
22 was looking into whether or not -- I mean, maybe you

1     can clarify it -- but that whether or not they were
2     billing me for AT&T or was AT&T billing me this whole
3     time or were you billing me for AT&T, the 4     long-distance portion?

5             MR. MARK LIEBERMAN:   Well, I think I can 6     clarify that.

7             JUDGE HAYNES:   Well, also at issue is the local
8     service.

9             MR. MARK LIEBERMAN:   All right.   Well, let me
10    see if I can address the whole subject.

11             Am I still in order or am I overstepping
12    my boundaries here?

13             JUDGE HAYNES:   I don't think that we're
14    going -- it's -- this is merely a status hearing --

15             MR. MARK LIEBERMAN:   Yes, ma'am.

16             JUDGE HAYNES:   -- because I am sure that SBC
17    will want some information from your company; am I
18    correct, Mr. Huttenhower?

19             MR. HUTTENHOWER:   Probably.

20             MR. MARK LIEBERMAN:   Well, I'll be happy to 21    give them the order number that was incorrectly
22    executed, if that will help.

1 JUDGE HAYNES: But today I won't be making any
2 determination --

3 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: I'm sorry.

4 JUDGE HAYNES: -- on the facts, and it really
5 is just a status hearing to make sure discovery is 6 going along and --

7 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Okay.

8 JUDGE HAYNES: -- to schedule when we'll have
9 the actual hearing

10 And, you know, I recommend that you have 11 an attorney. I lost my train of thought.

12 Here at the Commission the -- even once
13 we have that actual trial, you won't -- there won't
14 be a decision that day. There -- I will issue a 15 proposed order that the parties will have an 16 opportunity to brief if they disagree with it.

17 And then the Commissioners, the five
18 Commissioners, will vote on that order or change it
19 if they want to; and that will be the final
20 determination of the Commission.

21 And until we have that evidentiary
22 hearing, we really don't need to get into the actual

1       specifics -- I don't need to. The three parties may 2       want to try to work this out amongst themselves; but
3       at this point, do you -- Mr. Huttenhower, when do you
4       think you would be serving data requests on GTI?

5               MR. HUTTENHOWER: If I decide to send something
6       out, I would probably do so -- I could do so within 7       the next week or so.

8               JUDGE HAYNES: Okay. We'll say by the end of 9       the month.

10              MR. HUTTENHOWER: Okay.

11              JUDGE HAYNES: And, Mr. Lieberman, if you wish
12       to serve data requests on either party, I request
13       that you also do that by January 30th.

14              MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Okay, your Honor.

15              JUDGE HAYNES: And if you have anything that 16       you can think of that you want from GTI, please also 17       serve -- let him know by the end of the month. You
18       can send him a letter --

19              MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Okay.

20              JUDGE HAYNES: -- similar to, you know,
21       probably things that you received from
22       Mr. Huttenhower.

1 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Okay.

2 JUDGE HAYNES: And --

3 MS. ELIZABETH KRAFCKY: In other words, she
4 would like -- she would need her change order and all
5 of that information?

6 JUDGE HAYNES: Sure.

7 Could you identify yourself for the
8 record, please.

9 MS. ELIZABETH KRAFCKY: Oh, I'm sorry. I'm
10 also involved as a coworker with Jamie Catherine
11 Falconer, and I've been involved in the whole
12 situation. My name is 13 Liz Krafcky.

14 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: I'm sorry. Could you
15 repeat the name, please, ma'am.

16 MS. ELIZABETH KRAFCKY: Liz Krafcky.

17 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Krafcky. Thank you.

18 JUDGE HAYNES: Could you spell that.

19 MS. ELIZABETH KRAFCKY: K-r-a-f-c-k-y.

20 JUDGE HAYNES: Okay. And because you've been 21 involved, I assume that when we do get to the 22 evidentiary stage that she will call you as a

1 witness?

2 MS. ELIZABETH KRAFCKY: Hm-hmm.

3 JUDGE HAYNES: So that will be your role in 4 this.

5 Yeah. So if those requests could go out
6 by the end of the month, and if we could get parties
7 to respond to those by a month or a couple weeks. Is 8 two weeks fine? I don't know how extensive they'll 9 be.

10 Do the parties want a month to respond
11 or more like two weeks?

12 MR. HUTTENHOWER: Two weeks would -- I can't 13 imagine that MS. JAMIE FALCONER has -- that we have 14 anything more to give her.

15 JUDGE HAYNES: Okay.

16 MR. HUTTENHOWER: I don't know whether GTI will 17 want, you know, lots of stuff or not. If it just 18 wants records related to Ms. Falconer's account, for 19 example, I think I pretty much have what we have.

20 So --

21 JUDGE HAYNES: Okay.

22 MR. HUTTENHOWER: -- two weeks would be fine

1 with us.

2 JUDGE HAYNES: Okay. So we'll say by February
3 13th if people can answer those data requests.

4 And I think we could probably schedule
5 the evidentiary hearing, unless anybody thinks we 6 should have a status hearing before that.

7 Okay.

8 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: What happened --

9 JUDGE HAYNES: I'll take that as a no.

10 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Can I ask a question?

11 JUDGE HAYNES: Uh-huh.

12 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: So I send a letter to GTI
13 asking for whatever I want. Okay?

14 JUDGE HAYNES: Right.

15 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: And they respond with a
16 letter -- whatever it is, by the 13th of February.

17 JUDGE HAYNES: With all of the information.

18 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Okay. And if -- let's say
19 something -- we don't get it, and we go to the 20 evidence hearing and we haven't had a status. Can
21 you still say, I still didn't get this or is it too
22 late?

1 JUDGE HAYNES: Okay. Well, since you have that
2 concern, we'll have a status. That is usually why we
3 have statuses, just to make sure all of the discovery
4 problems are cleared up.

5 Sometimes complainants don't like to
6 come in and so -- it's because of their scheduling
7 difficulties and they're not getting paid to be here.

8 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Yeah, I know. I'm not
9 saying I'm not going to be here, but I want to make
10 sure that I have the information.

11 JUDGE HAYNES: Yeah. That's appropriate.

12 We'll go ahead and schedule. How about
13 a status then for the end of February?

14 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: I mean, if it's okay, we 15 can do it over the phone. I don't need all of them
16 to come in. Just as long as we have all the 17 information that we're looking for. I don't know if 18 that's normal or not. So if that would make it
19 easier.

20 JUDGE HAYNES: Mr. Huttenhower, I bet you will 21 be here in person no matter what.

22 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Okay.

1 JUDGE HAYNES: How about -- let's make it
2 February 26th --
3 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Okay.
4 JUDGE HAYNES: -- for the status hearing.
5 Is everybody available that day?
6 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Yes, ma'am.
7 JUDGE HAYNES: Okay.
8 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: That can also be done over
9 the phone, is your point to that?
10 JUDGE HAYNES: You can appear over the phone.
11 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Thank you.
12 JUDGE HAYNES: For the actual evidentiary
13 hearing, I will require you to appear in person.
14 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: I understand.
15 JUDGE HAYNES: Okay.
16 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: At what time would we do
17 that?
18 JUDGE HAYNES: What time is good for you?
19 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: I would prefer it in the 20 morning, if possible.
21 JUDGE HAYNES: Okay. 10:00?
22 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: That's fine.

1 JUDGE HAYNES: Okay. So we'll have a status
2 hearing February 26th at 10:00 a.m., and at which
3 time I will make sure the discovery is all completed
4 and we'll pick a date for the evidentiary hearing.
5 Is there anything else that we should
6 talk about on the record today?
7 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Yes, ma'am. I have a
8 procedural question.
9 JUDGE HAYNES: Okay.
10 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Is there anything that 11 precludes my calling MS. JAMIE FALCONER in order to 12 try to get the details of the charges that she's 13 questioning here? I'd like to move this along in 14 order to, frankly, help out both her and me.
15 JUDGE HAYNES: I'm not really sure what you're 16 requesting here, but you're free to send her a data
17 request to get all the -- whatever she's seeking.
18 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: I see. So the way it
19 needs to be done is it needs to be through the mail.
20 Calling isn't -- just isn't the way these things are 21 done.
22 JUDGE HAYNES: Oh, you mean --

1           MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: I was just going to call
2 her up on the phone.

3           JUDGE HAYNES: -- can you settle with her?

4           MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Oh, I'm not sure there's 5 anything to settle; but it's clear that my
6 understanding of the charges is already incorrect,
7 and so I figured that would be the fastest way to go.

8           JUDGE HAYNES: I don't believe there's anything
9 that stops you from calling her.

10          MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Okay.

11          JUDGE HAYNES: And -- yeah, that's fine.

12          MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: MS. JAMIE FALCONER, would 13 that be all right with you?

14          MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Oh, it's totally fine.
15 You can call me.

16          MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: All right. That's fine.
17 Thank you both.

18          JUDGE HAYNES: And I will -- if you want to 19 keep discussing right now, when I leave the room,
20 that is also fine.

21          MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: I would love to. As long
22 as we're all here, sure.

1 JUDGE HAYNES: If everyone has time because I
2 don't believe there's any hearing after this.

3 Is there anything else?

4 MR. HUTTENHOWER: Mr. Lieberman, just --
5 because I'm not -- what's your phone number in case I
6 want to call you at some point?

7 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: That's more than fair. I
8 think we should exchange that information. My phone
9 number is area code (773) 878-3161. I'm Extension
10 218.

11 MR. HUTTENHOWER: 3161, Extention 218.

12 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Yes, sir. And your phone
13 number?

14 MR. HUTTENHOWER: It's (312) 727-1444.

15 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: I'm sorry. Could you
16 repeat those last four digits, please.

17 MR. HUTTENHOWER: 1444.

18 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Thank you.

19 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Mr. Lieberman?

20 MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: Yes, ma'am?

21 MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Did you say it was 878 or 22 873?

1           MR. MARK LIEBERMAN: 878, ma'am.

2           MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Okay.

3           JUDGE HAYNES: Does anybody have any questions
4 on how this will proceed or anything?

5           MR. HUTTENHOWER: In the event that some or all
6 of the parties are able to work out some agreement,
7 you know, in advance of, say, February 26th, we
8 should just submit the appropriate motion on e-Docket
9 and you can decide what you'd want to do with it
10 then.

11          JUDGE HAYNES: If parties settle and you file a
12 joint motion and stipulation, then I will close the 13 docket. It's not a problem.

14                   Yeah, definitely.

15          MR. HUTTENHOWER: Okay.

16          JUDGE HAYNES: Or if you're on the verge of 17 settling and you just haven't gotten the paperwork
18 done, you can call me and I'll continue it and -- for 19 30 days to give you time to file anything.

20          MR. HUTTENHOWER: Okay.

21          MS. JAMIE FALCONER: Thank you.

22          JUDGE HAYNES: Okay. This is continued then

1     until February 26th at 10:00 a.m.

2             MR. MARK LIEBERMAN:   And then, MS. JAMIE

3     FALCONER, are

4     you -- can I hang onto you for, I don't know, five or

5     ten minutes?

6             MS. JAMIE FALCONER:   Sure.

7             MR. MARK LIEBERMAN:   Thank you.

8             MR. HUTTENHOWER:   Do you want me around or not?

9             MR. MARK LIEBERMAN:   It's your call.   It's up

10    to you.   I just want to try to understand what's

11    going on here and see how I can expect things.

12             MR. HUTTENHOWER:   Yeah.   I certainly want to

13    look at this collection letter she got -- or whatever

14    it is from AT&T since that --

15             JUDGE HAYNES:   So I encourage you all to remain

16    and have a conversation then.

17             MR. MARK LIEBERMAN:   I think that's fine.

18    Thank you.

19             JUDGE HAYNES:   Okay.   Thank you.
